

E-Learning Offer in conjunction with Virtual College from July 2020

The Calderdale Safeguarding Adults Board (CSAB) and Safeguarding Children Partnership (CSCP) and their partners have purchased a number of licences for the following courses to allow practitioners, managers and volunteers who work with children, families and adults at risk in Calderdale to access e-learning free of charge.

Before selecting a course, please discuss your training needs with your Manager. The levels described in this offer correlate to the three levels used in face to face training and are linked to job role, for example, Level One is equivalent to Foundation Level (for further information, see the descriptors in the Calderdale multi-agency safeguarding training programme). Please request one course at a time and complete it fully before requesting another.
